

Mrs. Jill Nunnelley Sumpter

August 4, 1940 - January 24, 2017

Jill Nunnelley Sumpter, 76, of Johnstown, NY passed away on January 24, 2017, in the comfort of her home. She was surrounded by the ones she loved, after a long and courageous battle with cancer. Jill was a member of the Johnstown Reformed Church.

Jill was born on August 4th, 1940, to the late Emmett Crook Nunnelley and Elizabeth Rose Gurney in Baton Rouge, LA. She had a BS from Boston University and went on to work as a Medical Transcriptionist at Saratoga Hospital for 29 years. Jill was very active at the Johnstown Senior Citizens Center, where she met many good friends. Jill was a lover of arts in all forms and loved life. She particularly enjoyed painting. Jill enjoyed listening to Opera, Classical Music and traditional Country Western music; as well as reading from her extensive book collection. Jill was a member of MENSA Int. Mensa is the largest and oldest high IQ society in the world. It is a non-profit organization open to people who score at the 98th percentile or higher on a standardized, supervised IQ or other approved intelligence test.

Jill leaves behind not only her loving daughter, Vanessa Maxwell and her husband Andrew, but also her grandchildren: Morgan, Todd, Mitchell and Tanner (Hoover), Travis Maxwell, several nephews and cousins, a niece, her beloved cats and many lifelong dear friends. Jill was predeceased by not only her parents but also her brothers, Gurney Nunnelley and William Trombley, and a sister, Sigrid Nunnelley.

Jill's wishes were to have a memorial service, to be held at a later date, in Florida.

Memorial contributions can be made in her memory to American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 7262 Hillsborough, NJ 08844. Online condolences can be made at www.ehleandbarnett.com

Comments

“ I worked with Jill for many years at Saratoga Hospital and we always remained friends. Jill loved and understood cats and had as many as 7 at one time...I know because I fed them when she was away for a while, each with their own can and dish and spot to place them! We had a very enjoyable email correspondence these last years, which I will greatly miss. She has left a lovely daughter and 4 grandchildren, to whom I extend my sincere sympathy.

Sign Guest Book Scrolls to Condolence Entry

Louise Carlini - January 31, 2017 at 08:32 AM